

Inclusive Curriculum Design

- Lesson plans cater to a wide range of abilities and provide adaptations for pupils with SEND.
- Activities are designed to be accessible to all, ensuring no child feels excluded due to physical, cognitive, or emotional barriers.

Representation in Music Activities

- The platform includes a variety of musical genres, styles and activities from different cultures, promoting global awareness.
- Diverse representation in lesson materials and classroom displays.
- We signpost pupils to a range of composers and musicians.

Gender Equality and Breaking Stereotypes

- We challenge gender stereotypes by ensuring diverse representation of composers and musicians in our units and in our illustrations.
- We encourage a growth mindset where all pupils feel capable of succeeding in musical activities, regardless of gender.

Diversity in Get Set 4 Music

Focus on Inclusion and Wellbeing

- Through Social and Emotional skills written on every lesson, we encourage values such as respect, teamwork, and understanding, promoting an inclusive environment.
- Through SEND strategies and resources, we ensure pupils can participate regardless of need.

Community and Social Cohesion

- Encourages activities that build social cohesion, helping pupils from different backgrounds work together using music.
- Provides Musical Families resources for communities to extend their musical learning at home.
